Mr. Record procured a place for me to preach in the old Baptist church, which was filled to its utmost capacity. I preached one and a half hours upon the reasons of our faith. Two Baptist ministers were present and many of their congregations, but not one word was said in review. Next morning left my friends in Moncton and proceeded to Dorchester to fulfill my second appointment in that place. Next day came to Sackville and on Saturday proceeded to Amherst, N. S., to preach Sunday morning. Sunday morning upon repairing to the court house to meet my appointment I found the people without and the house locked. This was an act of illiberality which I had not met with in all my tour. However, at 12 o clock the house was opened and I entered and delivered my message. At 6 o clock I preached again. The house was full, but no lights nor any other convenience. This place, Amherst, is a shabby place and under the rule of ministers. The only courtesy I received in this village was from Catholics. I shall long remember this place as a mean and aristocratic place and but little advanced from a state of heathenism. Monday morning I took the stage for Minudle, crossed the ferry and was at friend Seaman s in season for dinner. I preached in this place on this Monday evening to a large and attentive congregation and on the...
