Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt: .feed on our own hearts; but he Whose heart fed mine has passed into the past. Past, all things born with sense and blood and breath; The flesh hears nought that now the spirit saith. If death be like as birth and birth as death, The first was fair--more fair should be the last. Fourscore years since, and come but one month more The count were perfect of his mortal score Whose sail went seaward yesterday from shore To cross the last of many an unsailed sea. Light, love and labour up to life s last height, These three were stars unsetting in his sight; Even as the sun is life and heat and light And sets not nor is dark when dark are we. Pg 76 The life, the spirit, and the work were one That here--ah, who shall say, that here are done? Not I, that know not; father, not thy son, For all the darkness of the night and sea. March 5, 1877 Pg 77 A BIRTH SONG (For Olivia Frances Madox Rossetti, born...
