They screamed at the revelers to lie down, ripped open a plastic bag, and lobbed five human heads onto the beer-stained black and white dance floor. The day before these macabre pyrotechnics, the killers seized their prey from a mechanic s shop and hacked off their heads with bowie knives while the men writhed in pain. You don t do something like that unless you want to send a big message, said a U.S. law-enforcement official, speaking on condition of anonymity about an act of human depravity that would cast a pall over the darkest nooks of hell. The desperados left behind a note hailing their act as divine justice, adding that: The Family doesn t kill for money; it doesn t kill women; it doesn t kill innocent people; only those who deserve to die, die. Everyone should know . . . this is divine justice. While claiming to do the Lord s work, the ruthless leaders of this syndicate have emerged as the dominant exporter of methamphetamines to the United States, even as they control scores of municipalities in Michoacan and neighboring states.
