Maggot (Paperback)

By Robert Flanagan

Bottom Dog Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 2nd. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Fiction. At Marine Corps basic training, Parris Island, the 70 recruits of Platoon 197 are so many quot;maggotsquot; to their drill instructor. Sgt. Maguire relentlessly destroys the individuality of each recruit only to rebuild him as a marineor ship him home, a dishonored wash-out. Among Maguire s maggots are Tom Adamczyk, terrified and determined to succeed, and Joe Waite, whose careless competence makes him seem a natural for squad leader. Both have joined the Corps for no very good reason; both are suddenly jolted into an awareness of the commitment they have made. When the brutality of basic training culminates in an official investigation, Adamczyk and Waite are forced to make decisions that will shape the rest of their lives. quot;MAGGOT is a great book, full of anger and power and humor and heart.quot;Ron Hansen quot;Parris Island will make a man of you or break you totally, many have suggested. This strong, well-written novel tells the story of varying shades of possibility in between. These are real people in the hands of this author and the outcome may surprise...
