Thebans! O let no foreign customs throw their Scandal among you. Teach religious duties, Laws of your country, virtues of your fathers Teach to your children. F Sacred your temples, --your tribunals, justice; Peace, truth, and love dwell midst you, omnipresent; All that is vile and all that is unholy Drive from your city! Walls screen not crime; and punishment will force its Way through the tower, and through the thricebound portal, Smiting the vicious. Thunderbolts but wait to Burst on the vile one. Painted deceit, tyrannical ambition, Wealth-seeking lust, and luxury s excesses, --Chase them far from you; let them never hold a Throne in your bosoms. Poverty gives to man unwonted vigour, Teaches him patience neath the weight of suffering, Arms him with courage;--but the stolen armour Wearies, though golden. Whether your lot be war or...
