Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this delightfully entertaining story for 8 - 12 year old children we meet our hero, Oscar Temple. Oscar has never had much time for History - until History itself reaches out and grabs him. He discovers a mysterious old photo in a family album - a picture of a cheery young man whose name has been crossed out, leaving only the date, 1913. Whatever has the young man done to deserve such treatment? Who could he have upset, and why? Oscar is intrigued - but it is not until he puts his nose to the pages and sniffs that he inhales a real whiff of the past. Oscar and his best mate Finn trawl ancestor sites on the internet and arrive at an exciting conclusion. Harry King - a famous star of the Edwardian Music Hall - looks as though he could be the young man in the photo, but how to find out more? Oscar is now a boy with a mission, convinced that the only way to find out the truth about Harry is to travel back to 1913 and meet him face to face. Oscar needs an expert on time travel. When he meets Mr Theo, in his weird and wacky sweet shop, he is introduced to the Yesterday Tree, and begins a fantastic journey into the past. He is plunged into the theatrical world of a century ago, meeting a host of colourful characters. Most important of all, is Harry King, the talented, brave and charming young song-and-dance man of the album photo - who employs Oscar as his backstage assistant. During his adventures in the past, Oscar also finds intrigue, jealousy, a...
